Senior Class History

Beginning the school term in 1943, forty Freshmen started their High School years in M.H.S. with L. L. Lehmberg as sponsor.

At the first class meeting officers were elected as follows:

President—Alice Wedel
Vice-President—Jean Vogt
Secretary—James Krehbiel
Treasurer—Earl Roth

The class had a party each semester of that school term.

Again in 1944, thirty-six of the original class were back for their second year together with Miss Elsie Shippy as the class sponsor. Officers for the class were:

President—Norman Wedel
Vice-President—Earl Roth
Secretary—Johnnie Luginbill
Treasurer—Jean Vogt

Again this year the class had a party each semester.

In 1945 the class, under the sponsorship of Mary Ann Taves, elected the following officers:

President—Bill Unrau
Vice-President—Margie Graber
Secretary—Jean Vogt
Treasurer—Alice Wedel

Early in the year, as Juniors, the class ordered their senior rings from Star Engraving Company. These were received the first of February.

The class presented the play "Old Doc", under the direction of Mrs. Goerz, which was a huge success.

During the year Maryan Harder took over for Miss Taves who resigned, and it was she who helped us with the Junior-Senior banquet. The class chose "Swinging On A Star" for the theme of the banquet. With the banquet we ended our third year of high school.

In the fall of '46 the class, which now consisted of thirty-two members, met and elected the following as officers for the coming year:

President—Max Westerman
Vice-President—Lola Goering
Secretary—Margie Graber
Treasurer—James Krehbiel

The first semester the class had a hayrack ride to Harvey County Park.

In the spring the class presented "Spring Green" with Miss Hays directing, and had their sneak day, which was spent in Kansas City and coming back to Topeka for the night.

After losing two members in their senior year and ten classmates through four years of high school we had a graduating class of thirty.

Senior Class Prophecy

It was a beautiful balmy day in May of 1957. My husband Max Westerman and I were driving along the streets of Kansas City in our marvelous green Model A Ford that we had just purchased from the Herb Manufacturing Company owned by Dorothy Herb Krehbiel now Dorothy Herb Zerger, wife of Myron Zerger the former M. H. S. student. We had purchased the car the previous hour and while talking with Dorothy Herb I asked her about her home and husband. She informed us that Myron was home taking care of the twins, Otto and Dotto. It was getting towards noon when we left Herb and drove to the spacious Ruby's Rendezvous where we ate our delicious noon meal. Maxine Krehbiel, one of Ruby's waitresses, informed us that Ruby Strausz, the owner of the restaurant, was married to Earl Roth who was running competition with the Herb Manufacturing Company. Earl worked up from a tack spitter to be head of the Ford plant. He was a whiz at tack spitting and could spit 499 tacks a minute. His main objective was to spit 500 a minute but he never achieved that high standard. Maxine also told us that she had to earn the bread for their family, because her husband, Bill Unrau was too lazy to put his intelligent mind to use. We then journeyed on westward to Denver. At Denver we visted the great professional artist, Dorothy Phil Krehbiel. Rumors were flying that Dorothy was in the midst of preparations for a wedding. She planned to marry her model Nelson Keith Gravel. Dorothy Phil told us to be sure to visit the Goering Zoo where Orville was the trainer of the monkeys. His wife, Louise Suenram, also helped take care of the zoo. Her duty was to give the Hippopotamus a bath every week. On our way to the zoo we heard the newsboys crying "Extra, extra." We bought a paper and there on the front page in big headlines was an article on the famous missionary, Dwight Johnson Jr. He had been bringing the natives to salvation in the darkest part of Africa, and was now returning to the United States. We were quite surprised at this news, for we had wondered what had happened to our old school mate. Upon leaving the zoo we left the state of Colorado and after several days travel we arrived in Albuquerque, New Mexico. As we were driving through the streets of Albuquerque we saw another one of our old school mates standing on the steps of "Ye Old Saloon". It was none other than Norman Wedel dressed in cowboy garb. We stopped to chat for a few minutes and asked him how he happened to become a cowboy. He said he had been influenced by his cowboy part in the Moundridge Senior Play way back in 1947. He invited us to his ranch for the week end. He told us that his wife, Dorothy Manny, would see that we would have every convenience possible. Our week end at the ranch would have been most successful except my husband Max was stricken with a severe case of scarlet fever. We took him to the Albuquerque hospital where, to our surprise, one of the doctors was Homer Stucky. When Homer discovered one of his old school mates was in the hospital he insisted on being his doctor. He called in his special nurse, Jean Vogt, to whom he was engaged, to assist him in the case. Much to my relief Max recovered from his illness in about five weeks, so we resumed our trip. Our next stop was Hollywood. Here we visited the famous Flickner Celebrity Club, owned by Neva Jane Flickner. One of the high spots on the evening show was music by a male quartet consisting of Clarence Goering, Tom Johnson, Harry Graber, and Marvin Gehring. We were also delighted by the torchy love song sung by Lois Fulk. This was one of the most delightful evenings of our trip. We decided to visit some of the manufacturing plants around Hollywood. One of the most interesting was the tooth-pick factory operated by Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stucky. Mrs. Stucky was the former Jane Regier. This factory manufactured one trillion toothpicks a day. They were very generous and let us each take home one toothpick as a remembrance. The next place we visited was the "Dress Designing School" owned by James Krehibel. James informed us that he wasn't married yet, because he couldn't make up his mind between Verna Kaufman and Lola Beth Goering, who were in his school as models for the dresses he designed. The next stop before we left for home was Portland, Oregon, where we decided to rest a bit. We went to the Turkish Bath House which was operated by Alice Wedel and Margie Graber. We chatted with them and discovered that a double wedding was soon to occur. Margie was to wed Marvin Gehring and Alice was to wed Clarence Goering. We noticed it was getting late so we started for home, happy that we had seen every member of our Senior Class of 1947.

Senior Class Will

The Senior class of 1947, being of sound mind and body hereby do make, publish, and declare this writing to be our last will and testament to you, the student body of M.H.S. heartily wishing you the best of luck in the years to come; trusting that you will keep up the spirit of M.H.S. and strive for a better school in the future.

As to such property as it has pleased the fates and our strong arms to give, we do dispose of the same as follows; though it may seem but trifling bequests, we hope they may be accepted, not as "slams" or worthless things lavishly thrown away because we can no longer wish to keep them, but as valuable assets to those who may receive them, and a continual reminder of the generosity of heart displayed in our free and full bestowal.

We give and bequeath to the school as a whole, all our poor and unfinished subjects, and our bad reports held by the teachers.

We give and bequeath to the dear faculty, who have been our instructors in all the wisdom of the ages, a sweet and unbroken succession of restful nights and peaceful dreams. They have worked hard trying to teach us during our four years in high school and it has been a hard strain on them, but they have all done their duty, and verily, now shall they have their well-earned reward.

To Mr. Greer, the senior class wills a memoir book of the many good deeds and work that we have accomplished throughout our school years in hopes that he may forget the foolishness he had to put up with from any of the members of the class.

Clarence Goering wills his bashfulness to Virginia Toevs.

Norman Wedel wills his orneriness to Ralph Krueger. "Krug" has been unusually quiet and we think he needs something to make him louder in the class room.

Orville Goering wills his dark complexion to Donald Goering.

Maxine Krehbiel wills her short skirt to Vogue designers.

To the most popular girl of next years senior class, Margie Graber wills her position as football queen.

Alice Wedel wills her typing speed to Lucille Wedel, though she may regret this, because the faster you can type, the mork work you can accomplish.

Lola Goering wills her slimness to Jane Krehbiel.

Verna Kaufman wills her ability to catch a man and to keep him to Dolores Johnson.

Ruby Strausz will gladly will some of her height to Neva Kaufman.

To Bob Gray, Keith Stucky wills his pilot's license provided Bob doesn't fly low and that he stays his distance from Moundridge when he is in the air.

Much to his regret, Earl Roth wills Sunflower seeds to students who can eat in class without the teachers knowing it.

James Krehbiel wills his witty remarks to Vernon Goering.

Jean Vogt wills her giggles to Jacob Gehring.

Dwight Johnson, Jr. wills his ability to play the piano to Alvin Moddelmog.

Marvin Gehring wills his quietness to the Junior Class. Perhaps this will keep them from laughing during some of the assembly programs.

Tom Johnson wills his ability to sleep in class to Lois Schlender.

Homer Stucky wills his neatness to 'Gramps'.

"Parting is such Sweet Sorrow" but "Herb" with tears in her eyes wills her green model A to Ethel Vogt. I'm sure Ethel would like this better than the big Hudson she drives.

Dorothy "Phil" wills her naturally curly hair to all girls of M.H.S. They might appreciate it on rainy days.

Dorothy Manny wills her ability to settle down and study to Larry K. and Bob Miller.

Jane Regier wills her many boy-friends to Violet Krehbiel.

Max Westerman wills his technique of arguing in Miss Farquhar's American History class to "Cot" Krehbiel.

Keith Gravel wills his frequent hair-cuts to Wayne Krehbiel.

Bill Unrau wills his ability to play the trombone to Eugene Stucky.

Harry Graber wills his reckless driving to Dean Huffman. But what he'll do without it is beyond us.

To Norma Westerman, Myron Zerger wills his cute smile. May she smile as much as Myron does.

Marjorie Goering wills her blonde hair to Louise Mahan. This will be some contrast, however, it may be becoming to Louise.

Neva Flickner wills her personality to Ethel Regier.

Louise Suenram wills her carefreeness to Lois Eck.

Lois Fulk wills to a fellow student her long eye-lashes. Betty Huxman gets the benefit of them, because she lost part of her eye-lashes in a fire.

In witness whereof, we, the Class of '47, the testators, have to this will set our hands and seal this sixteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven.
